

2009 Valentine's Day

Send a little love this Valentine's Day to our deployed U.S. Troops by sending a little treat!

Remember our troops on Valentine's Day by sending one or two boxes of children's valentine cards and lollipops! After writing "we're proud of our U.S. Troops" on each card along with your name, city and state, tie a small red ribbon around the lollipop, and attach it to the card.

OR

send a box of valentine candy hearts (the ones with messages on them) along with your cards. Be sure to let them you you're from AdoptaPlatoon!

MAIL NO LATER THAN February 1, 2009!

For More Information, contact Campaign Director Arline Grant at aapcampaign@adoptaplatoon.org with the following information in the subject line of your e-mail:

 VALENTINE – Current Supporter (for people already supporting a Soldier with the name of your Soldier AND all your info, name, address, phone, marital status)

 VALENTINE – NEW Supporter (first time supporter – please fill out the application at the top of our website and put Valentine – New Supporter in the 'comments' section-- www.adoptaplatoon.org)

Also, let us know how many in the Platoon you would like to support!

AAP approval needed for participation in all AAP campaigns

God Bless our Peacekeepers

©Adoptaplatoon Soldier Support Effort 1998-2009
All Rights Reserved